AUSTRALIA,

of the other part,

hereinafter called 'the Contracting Parties',

DESIROUS of creating favourable conditions for the harmonious development of trade and the promotion of commercial cooperation in the wine sector on the basis of equality, mutual benefit and reciprocity,

RECOGNIZING that the Contracting Parties desire to establish closer links in the wine sector which will permit further development at a later stage,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

The Contracting Parties agree, on the basis of non-discrimination and reciprocity, to facilitate and promote trade in wine originating in the Community and in Australia on the conditions provided for in this Agreement.

Article 2

1. This Agreement applies to wines falling under heading 22.04 of the Harmonized System of the International Convention on the Harmonized Commodity, Description and Coding System, done at Brussels on 24 June 1983.

2. For the purposes of this Agreement, unless the contrary intention appears:

(a) 'wine originating in' shall mean, when followed by the name of one of the Contracting Parties, a wine made within the territory of that Contracting Party from grapes which have been wholly harvested and produced in the territory of that Contracting Party;

(b) 'geographical indication' shall mean an indication as specified in Annex II, including an 'Appellation of Origin', which is recognized in the laws and regulation of a Contracting Party for the purpose of the description and presentation of a wine originating in the territory of a Contracting Party, or in a region or locality in that territory, where a given quality, reputation or other characteristic of the wine is essentially attributable to its geographical origin;

(c) 'traditional expression' shall mean a traditionally used name as specified in Annex II, referring in particular to the method of production or to the quality, colour or type of a wine, which is recognized in the laws and regulations of a Contracting Party for the purpose of the description and presentation of a wine originating in the territory of a Contracting Party;

(d) 'description' shall mean the names used on the labelling, on the documents accompanying the transport of the wine, on the commercial documents particularly the invoices and delivery notes, and in advertising;

(e) 'labelling' shall mean all descriptions and other references, signs, designs, or trade marks which distinguish the wine and which appear on the same container, including its sealing device or the tag attached to the container and the sheathing covering the neck of bottles;

(f) 'presentation' shall mean the names used on the containers, including the closure, on the labelling and on the packaging;

(g) 'packaging' shall mean the protective wrappings, such as papers, straw envelopes of all kinds, cartons and cases, used in the transport of one or more containers.

Article 3

1. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, importation and marketing shall be conducted in compliance with the laws and regulations applying in the territory of the Contracting Party.

2. The Contracting Parties shall take all general and specific measures necessary to ensure that the obligations laid down by this Agreement are fulfilled. They shall ensure that the objectives set out in this Agreement are attained.

TITLE I

Oenological practices and processes and compositional requirements for wineArticle 4*

1. The Community shall authorize the import into the Community and the marketing in its territory for direct human consumption of all wines originating in Australia and produced in accordance with;

- (a) one or more of the oenological practices or processes listed in paragraph 1 of Annex I; and
- (b) the compositional and other requirements as provided for in the Protocol to the Agreement.

2. Australia shall authorize the import into Australia and the marketing in its territory for direct human consumption of all wines originating in the Community and produced in accordance with

- (a) one or more of the oenological practices or processes listed in paragraph 2 of Annex I; and
- (b) the compositional and other requirements as provided for in the Protocol to the Agreement.

Article 5

1. If one Contracting Party authorizes for its wines an oenological practice or process which is not authorized by the other Contracting Party by virtue of Article 4, it may make a request to the other Contracting Party for authorization. In this case, the Party making the request shall place at the disposal of the other Contracting Party an appropriate dossier including the information necessary for the evaluation of the request.

2. The evaluation of a request referred to in paragraph 1 shall be carried out taking account, in particular, of:

- (a) requirements for protection of human health;
- (b) requirements for consumer protection; and
- (c) rules of good oenological practice, and in particular the requirement that the oenological practice or process in question does not involve an unacceptable change in the composition of the product treated or a deterioration in the organoleptic characteristics thereof.

3. Within a period of 12 months from the submission of the dossier referred to in paragraph 1, the Contracting Parties shall mutually decide whether, and subject to what prescriptions, the oenological practice or process in question can be included in Annex I or whether a supplementary evaluation period is necessary.

4. If one of the Contracting Parties considers it necessary it may make a request for an opinion of the Office International de la Vigne et du Vin (OIV) or any other competent international authority concerning the oenological practice or process in question. In this case, the period referred to in paragraph 3 shall be extended until the said authority has given its opinion.

5. The Contracting Party to which the request for authorization was made, having fulfilled the procedural requirements referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4, may refuse the authorization if it considers that the oenological practice or process is incompatible with the requirements referred to in paragraph 2.

6. Paragraphs 1 to 5 inclusive shall also apply in cases where one Contracting Party:

- (a) requests the other Party to render less restrictive the prescriptions for an oenological practice or process referred to in Annex I; or
- (b) intends, on other than health grounds, to prohibit an oenological practice or process or to render more restrictive the prescriptions for an oenological practice or process referred to in Annex I.

7. Where a Contracting Party as a result of new information or of a reassessment of existing information has detailed grounds for establishing that an authorized oenological practice or process endangers human health, it may temporarily suspend the authorization referred to in Article 4 or restrict the prescriptions regarding this practice or process listed in Annex I. The other Contracting Party shall be informed of this at least four weeks before the suspension or restriction takes effect with an indication of the reasons which justify this decision. When the gravity of the danger so justifies, the suspension or restriction can be decided with immediate effect. In this case, the other Contracting Party shall be informed immediately with an indication of the reasons.

8. Where paragraph 7 is invoked, consultations between the Contracting Parties shall take place as soon as possible with a view to taking the appropriate measures as mutually decided. These measures may take the form of modifications to Annex I.

TITLE II

Reciprocal protection of wine names and related provisions on description and presentation

Article 6

1. The Contracting Parties shall take all measures necessary, in accordance with this Agreement, for the reciprocal protection of the names referred to in Article 7 which are used for the description and presentation of wines originating in the territory of the Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall provide the legal means for interested parties to prevent use of a traditional expression or a geographical indication identifying wines for wines not originating in the place indicated by the geographical indication in question.

2. The protection provided for in paragraph 1 also applies to names even where the true origin of the wine is indicated or the geographical indication or traditional expression is used in translation or accompanied by expressions such as 'kind', 'type', 'style', 'imitation', 'method' or the like.

3. The protection provided for in paragraphs 1 and 2 is without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 7 (5), 8 and 11.

4. The registration of a trade mark for wines which contains or consists of a geographical indication or a traditional expression identifying a wine as referred to in Article 7 shall be refused, or if domestic legislation so permits and at the request of an interested party be invalidated, with respect to such wines not originating:

(a) in the place indicated by the geographical indication;
or

(b) in the place where the traditional expression has been traditionally used.

5. In the case of homonymous geographical indications:

(a) where a protected indication of a Contracting Party is identical with a protected indication of the other Contracting Party, protection shall be accorded to each indication, provided that the geographical name in question has been used traditionally and consistently and that the wine is not falsely represented to consumers as originating in the territory of the other Contracting Party;

(b) where a protected indication of a Contracting Party is identical with a geographical name outside the territories of the Contracting Parties, the latter name may be used to describe and present a wine produced in the geographical area to which it refers, provided that the geographical name in question has been used traditionally and consistently, that its use for this purpose is regulated by the country of origin and that the wine is not falsely represented to consumers as originating in the territory of the Contracting Party concerned. In such a case, the Contracting Parties shall determine the practical conditions under which the homonymous indications in question will be differentiated from each other, taking into account the need to ensure equitable treatment of the producers concerned and that consumers are not misled.

6. The provisions of this Agreement shall in no way prejudice the right of any person to use, in the course of trade, their name or the name of their predecessor in business, except where such name is used in such a manner as to mislead consumers.

7. Nothing in this Agreement shall oblige a Contracting Party to protect a geographical indication or traditional expression of the other Contracting Party which is not or ceases to be protected in its country of origin or which has fallen into disuse in that country.

Article 7

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 8 and 11 and the Protocol, the following names are protected:

(a) as regards wines originating in the Community:

- (a) are reserved exclusively to the wines originating in Australia to which they apply; and
- (b) may not be used otherwise than under the conditions provided for by the laws and regulations of Australia.
4. The Contracting Parties shall take all measures necessary to ensure that, in cases where wines originating in the Contracting Parties are exported and marketed outside of their territories, the protected names of one Contracting Party referred to in this Article are not used to describe and present a wine originating in the other Contracting Party.
5. In the case of the traditional expressions, the protection conferred by this Article will commence when agreement has been reached by the Contracting Parties, taking into account the recommendations of the Joint Committee established in Article 18, on the detailed arrangements for protection including appropriate transitional periods for phase-out by Australia and by third parties in Australia of the use of particular European traditional expressions and arrangements for the protection of Australian traditional expressions.

2. The Contracting Parties confirm that the name 'Hermitage' is used for wines originating in Australia as a synonym for the vine variety 'Shiraz'. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 7 and this Article the Contracting Parties agree that pending the determination of a transitional period in accordance with Article 9 and subsequently during the transitional period, the name 'Hermitage' may be used for wines originating in Australia as a synonym for the vine variety 'Shiraz' for sale in countries outside the territory of the Community in so far as the laws and regulations in Australia and other countries permit provided that this name is not used in such a manner as to mislead consumers.

Exchange of letters on the conditions governing the production and labelling of 'bottle fermented' sparkling wines originating in Australia

Letter No 1

Brussels,

Sir,

I refer to the consultations which have taken place between representatives of the European Community and Australia on the conditions governing the production and labelling of 'bottle fermented' sparkling wine originating in Australia. I note that the Australian Government intends to incorporate the following definition in the relevant Australian legislation for the product in question:

- (a) "Bottle fermented" is a sparkling wine produced by the fermentation in a bottle not exceeding five litres in capacity and aged on its lees for not less than six months;
- (b) There shall not be written in the label on or attached to a package containing sparkling wine the words "bottle fermented" unless the sparkling wine is one produced by fermentation in a bottle not exceeding five litres in capacity and aged on its lees for not less than six months.'

I hereby confirm the equivalence of the abovementioned definition to the Community provisions laid down in Article 6 (3) of Regulation (EEC) No 2333/92 and agree to the Community's willingness on completing Regulation (EEC) No 2707/86 in order to authorize, after the incorporation of this definition in the relevant Australian legislation, importation and marketing of such sparkling wines originating in Australia.

I should be obliged if you would confirm that Australia is in agreement with the contents of this letter.

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.

Exchange of letters on the conditions governing the production and labelling of Australian wines described by and presented with the terms 'botrytis' or like, 'noble late harvested' or 'special late harvested'

Letter No 1

Brussels,

Sir,

I refer to the consultations which have taken place between representatives of the European Community and Australia on the conditions governing the production and labelling of wines originating in Australia which are described by and presented with the terms 'botrytis' or words to similar effect, 'noble late harvested' or 'special late harvested'. I note that the Australian Government intends to incorporate the following definition in the relevant Australian legislation for the product in question:

- (a) For a wine to be labelled with the term "botrytis" or words to similar effect, or the phrase "noble late harvested", it must be made from fresh ripe grapes of which a significant proportion have been affected under natural conditions by the mould botrytis cinerea in a manner which favours the concentration of sugars in the berries. Such wines have the characteristics referred to as "pourriture noble" or "edelfäule";
- (b) For a wine to be labelled with the phrase "special late harvested", it must be made from fresh ripe grapes of which a significant proportion have been desiccated under natural conditions in a manner which favours the concentration of the sugars in the berries.'

I hereby confirm the recognition of the abovementioned definitions as being terms regarding superior quality within the meaning of Article 26 (2) (c) of Regulation (EEC) No 2392/89 and agree to the Commission's willingness on completing Annex I of Regulation (EEC) No 3201/90 in order to authorize, after the incorporation of this definition in the relevant Australian legislation, importation and marketing of such wines originating in Australia.

I should be obliged if you would confirm that Australia is in agreement with the contents of this letter.

Exchange of letters regarding the Agreement between the European Community and Australia on trade in wine

Letter No 1

Brussels,

Sir,

I have the honour to refer to the negotiations recently undertaken between our respective delegations for the purpose of reaching agreement between the European Community and Australia on trade in wine ('the Agreement').

Australia confirms that where a geographical indication has been included as part of a mark registered in Australia as a trade mark in respect of wine, in the normal course, such registration does not imply that the proprietor of the registered mark has a right to the exclusive use of the geographical indication. Accordingly, when a geographical indication specified in Annex II of the Agreement is protected under Australian laws and regulations, the inclusion of such a geographical indication in a registered trade mark will be limited to those wines originating in the territory of the Contracting Party from that specific region or locality.

In relation to the geographical indications listed in Article 8 of the Agreement, where any such geographical indications have been included in a trade mark, either by themselves or with other names, the proprietor of such a mark does not have the exclusive right to the use of such geographical indication. Accordingly, use of a geographical indication as a part of a trade mark will be limited to those wines originating from a specific region in the territory of the Contracting Party when such geographical indications are protected under Australian laws and regulations at the conclusion of the relevant transitional periods provided for in Articles 8, 9 and 11 of the Agreement.

I have the honour to propose that this letter provide additional clarification regarding the operation of the above Agreement.

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.
