

Revision Breakfast Directives

CDG Agricultural Markets 20 November 2023

FARM TO FORK STRATEGY

"The Commission will revise marketing standards to provide for the uptake and supply of sustainable agricultural, fisheries and aquaculture products and to reinforce the role of sustainability criteria taking into account the possible impact of these standards on food loss and waste."

- improve information to consumers
- more sustainable and healthier diets
- stimulate product reformulation

Update outdated references to other legislation.

COM(2023)201final;published on 21/04/2023

Directive 2001/112/EC relating to fruit juices and certain similar products intended for human consumption (I)

Reduced sugar fruit juice & Reduced sugar fruit juice from concentrate

Naturally occurring sugar reduced by at least 30% using a process authorised by the directive.

Maintain all the other essential physical, chemical, organoleptical and nutritional characteristics.

Authorised treatments to reduce sugar

- yeast fermentation
- membrane filtration
- empowerment to add new treatments (current Art. 7)

Directive 2001/112/EC relating to fruit juices and certain similar products intended for human consumption (II)

Optional statement

"no fruit juices contain added sugars"

Authorised ingredients

- plant proteins from sunflower

Nectars

Reduce addition of sugar/honey to palatable juices (from 20 to 10%) and to low-acid juices (from 20 to 15%).

Coconut water

Synonym of coconut juice, alignment Codex Alimentarius

Directive 2001/113/EC relating to fruit jams, jellies and marmalades and sweetened chestnut puree intended for human consumption

Increase fruit content

Jam: 350 g/kg → 450 g/kg

Extra jam: 450 g/kg → 550 g/kg

Authorise use « jam » and « marmalade » as synonymys
"citrus marmalade"

Authorise concentrated citrus fruit juice

Ordinary legislative procedure

Council: discussions at WP and SCA finalised, negotiation mandate

EP:

- COMENVI vote on 29/11
- COMAGRI (associated committee) voted on 16/11
- Plenary: vote in December

Thank you