

Agriculture in international fora: OECD, G7 and G20

Civil Dialogue Group
International Aspects of Agriculture
Brussels – 15 September 2016

Maria Angeles Benitez Salas

DG Agriculture and Rural Development
Deputy Director General– International bilateral relations, Multilateral
Relations and Quality Policy

7-8 April 2016 OECD Agriculture Ministerial, Paris, France

- ❑ First Agriculture Ministerial since 2010
- ❑ Ministers from OECD, G20, accession countries, Latin America and South East Asia + International Organisations (n=54)
- ❑ Theme of "Better Policies for a Productive, Sustainable and Resilient Global Food System"
- ❑ Strong consensus to cooperate on improving the productivity and resilience (sustainability) of the agri-food system in the face of environmental, climatic and market-driven volatility
- ❑ Also food security, food-related health issues, innovation and better market integration through global value chains
- ❑ Declaration led to agreed 2017-18 OECD work programme

7-8 April 2016 OECD Agriculture Ministerial, Paris, France

- ❑ Commissioner Hogan promoted an EU agricultural agenda focused on the need for agriculture to "build bridges" with the rest of the economy through:
  - ❑ Connecting to new consumer patterns
  - ❑ Developing opportunities of global trade
  - ❑ Improving productivity in a sustainable way
- ❑ This will be enabled by improved functioning of food chains, knowledge-based responses (innovation) & digital connectivity
- ❑ Bilateral meetings were also held with Ministers from Chile, Mexico, Canada, Saudi Arabia and New Zealand

23-24 April 2016 G7 Agriculture Ministers, Niigata, Japan (EU, Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, UK, US)

- ❑ First Agriculture Ministers' Meeting since 2009
- ❑ Focused on common challenges to G7 agriculture: revitalising rural areas and increasing farmers' income, improving productivity and sustainability
- ❑ Restated ambition to implement Agenda 2030 on Sustainable Development and Paris Climate Agreement
- ❑ Underlined role of responsible private investment in agri-food sector in developing countries

2016 G7 Agriculture Ministers, Niigata

- ❑ Set up informal G7 Forum on Investment in the Agri-Food Sector in developing countries
- ❑ Aims:
  - To identify best practices in promoting investment in the agri-food sectors in developing countries;
  - To exchange policy experiences on access to credit and facilitating responsible investments in agriculture, agribusiness and agro-industry in developing countries;
  - To improve coherence of diverse initiatives.

3 June 2016 G20 Agriculture Ministers, Xi'an, China

(G7 members plus Argentina, Australia, Brazil, China, India, Indonesia, South Korea, Mexico, Russia, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Turkey)

- ❑ Development focus: prioritize work on food security, nutrition, sustainable agricultural growth and rural development as a significant contribution to implementing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.
- ❑ Gives leadership for agriculture policy and cooperation – e.g. to be implemented by FAO: price volatility, food losses and waste measurement and monitoring, SDG implementation; research collaboration.
- ❑ Seeking and setting out policy consensus, e.g. on trade, private investment, support for family farmers and smallholders. On Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR): restated support for World Health Organisation's Global Action Plan
- ❑ *Agriculture ministers to meet "regularly"

4-5 September 2016 G20 Summit, Hangzhou, China

- ❑ Endorsed the Agriculture Ministers' Communiqué – specific highlight for Family Farming Guidelines
- ❑ Boost to ratification of Paris Climate Agreement (US and CN ratify)
- ❑ Antimicrobial resistance: 'prudent use' of antibiotics
- ❑ WTO: commitment to press on with agriculture agenda

Looking forward to 2017

G7–Italy                      G20–Germany

- ❑ Both, G7 and G20 to hold Agriculture Ministerials
  - Underlines increasing role of policy and private sector action in search for food security, climate action, rural growth and jobs
- ❑ G7 Summit: Taormina, Sicily (26–27 May 2017)
  - Summit will focus on Africa and Migration
  - Topic and date for Agriculture Ministerial to be announced
- ❑ G20 Agriculture Ministerial: Berlin (January 2017)
  - Adjacent to International Green Week and the Global Forum for Food and Agriculture (topic: 'Agriculture and Water - Key to Feeding the World')
- ❑ G20 Summit: Hamburg (7-8 July 2017) Topic to be announced